

Friday Update

Happy Friday everyone – brace yourselves for some colder weather. We do have some coats in our lost property – please take a look to make sure they don't belong to your child!

Just a Couple of Housekeeping messages:-

A reminder that Key Stage 2 children need to bring in a snack from home for morning break. We have had lots of hungry children this week! A piece of fruit, breadsticks (check the ingredients!) vegetable sticks etc. Thank you.

On Monday there will be a menu change – it will be Turkey Escallopes in tomato sauce instead of meatballs. The gluten free and dairy free children are not affected.

Our diary dates have been updated and are available on our website and outside in the noticeboard if you need to check anything!
